The Rector writes:-

Now he is God not of the dead but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.

This is a season where we remember those we have loved and lost – and, especially today, many whom we have not known but to whom we owe an enormous debt. Last weekend I was in Cairo for the anniversary celebrations of All Saints Cathedral, of which I am a Canon. 75 years ago William Temple, then Archbishop of York, consecrated the first Anglican Cathedral in the city and his successor, Archbishop Sentamu, was there to preach at the celebratory service. At a special lunch on All Saints Day I was asked to 'say a few words' and recalled a young deacon, Munir, at the Cathedral who had part of my 'journey back to the church' when I lived there. Munir had died unexpectedly a few years later. I was privileged to be able to greet his wife and two children (and sister). My words, and the Bishop's wonderful response to the family, did the rounds on Facebook and I was surprised to be recognised when visiting a remote congregation on Sunday. For me the recollection of that particular person was a way of affirming a connection with the history of a Christian community living through some really challenging times. Their story was my story (after all, the saints in heaven and the saints on earth are part of the one body of Christ). A meeting with the Coptic Pope on Sunday reinforced the sense of wanting to hold the hopes, fears and prayers of Egyptian Christians in the heart of our community here in Crawley – along with the memory of those who have died, and continue to die, for the freedom we enjoy. We will remember them.

COLLECT & POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Collect –

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Post Communion Prayer –

God of peace, whose Son Jesus Christ proclaimed the kingdom and restored the broken to wholeness of life: look with compassion on the anguish of the world, and by your healing power make whole both people and nations; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.
