In the Gospel reading for today we read that Christ's disciples were irritated on his behalf by the persistence of the Canaanite woman whose daughter had a mental illness of some kind and who knew that Christ could deal with the illness.

The disciples reacted, as many do, in the face of mental illness and were surprised when Christ in effect overrode them with his remark 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' Having established the extent of the woman's faith, Christ then healed her daughter.

Mental illness still carries a stigma for many people. Such illness amongst younger people seems to be on the rise and a number of causes are cited for this increase. They include the pressures of social media, the education system, drug abuse and the false hopes and ambitions raised by the cult of celebrity status. Readers will be able – quite easily – to think of other possible triggers that they have encountered in those they know. As with physical illness, remedies are available, but access to professional help, diagnosis and treatment is often slow – far too slow – and leads to prolonged and debilitating incapacity amongst many who could be leading much more fulfilling lives. Mental illness has occurred – and will continue to occur – within our church community and amongst those we know in wider circles of acquaintance. Perhaps it is time that we collectively pressed for greater resources to be made available to deal effectively with it and perhaps we should give more time to praying for and listening to those we know whose lives are adversely affected by such illnesses.

The Covenant Extended to All Who Obey

Thus says the LORD:

Maintain justice, and do what is right, for soon my salvation will come, and my deliverance be revealed.

And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD, and to be his servants, all who keep the sabbath, and do not profane it, and hold fast my covenant—

these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer;

Israel's Rejection Is Not Final

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel? For the gifts and the calling of God are

Things That Defile

Then he called the crowd to him and said to them, 'Listen and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles.' Then the disciples approached and said to him, 'Do you know that the Pharisees took offence when they heard what you said?' He answered, 'Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit.' But Peter said to him, 'Explain this parable to us.' Then he said, 'Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles. For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.'

The Canaanite Woman's Faith

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, 'Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon.' But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, 'Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.' He answered, 'I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.' But she came and knelt before him, saying, 'Lord, help me.' He answered, 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs.' She said, 'Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table.' Then Jesus answered her, 'Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.' And her daughter was healed instantly.

Post Communion

God of our pilgrimage, you have willed that the gate of mercy should stand open for those who trust in you: look upon us with your favour that we who follow the path of your will may never wander from the way of life; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Jar of Grace labels are available in both churches from today. This is your opportunity to save some coins, in a jar, in thanks for every meal you have between now and Harvest, when we will collect the jars for UNICEF. This money will then be used to help protect children put at risk during tragic emergencies around the world. Thank you
