Advent countdown?

Can you believe it? Advent Sunday already!
You could say that today signals the countdown to Christmas, whether we are ready or not.

It is a good thing to have a deadline; do you agree? It focuses the mind to get things done. We may moan but be motivated, groan but be galvanised into action.

However, I encourage and urge you not to merely consider this day as the countdown.
Advent Sunday signals a call to keep alert and concentrate as we travel through the next four weeks (whether pootling, hurtling, even dragging ourselves forwards), on what we are traveling towards. Our ultimate goal in Advent, I would suggest, is to immerse ourselves in the story of our salvation.

Could we cultivate a spirit of expectation and anticipation to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ while we are making lists and wrapping presents?
Could we make space to think about when Christ will come again, a time which will be accompanied by power and glory?

This is a challenge in an unsettled atmosphere as we emerge either tentatively or boldly out of our recent and prolonged period of restriction of movement and behaviour. There seems to be an added pressure on us somehow.

In the Gospel reading Jesus says that on his return, there will be trouble about, trouble ahead, trouble in the heavens and on earth.
People will be distressed, confused, full of fear and foreboding by the signs involving the sea, moon and stars. One of the divine suggestions made is to pray for strength to endure.

How about thinking of strengthening the heart of the one the gift is intended for when you wrap your presents and add an extra blessing in the cards you send?

Peace be with you Rev'd Sarah

Collect

Almighty God, as your kingdom dawns, turn us from the darkness of sin to the light of holiness, that we may be ready to meet you in our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

Amen

Reading Jeremiah 33.14-16

The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will fulfil the promise I made to the house of Israel and the house of Judah. In those days and at that time I will cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. And this is the name by which it will be called: 'The Lord is our righteousness.'

Psalm Psalm 25.1-9

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul. O my God, in you I trust; do not let me be put to shame; do not let my enemies exult over me. Do not let those who wait for you be put to shame; let them be ashamed who are wantonly treacherous.

Make me to know your ways, O Lord; teach me your paths. Lead me in your truth, and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation; for you I wait all day long. Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and of your steadfast love, for they have been from of old. Do not remember the sins of my youth or my transgressions; according to your steadfast love remember me, for your goodness' sake, O Lord!

Good and upright is the Lord; therefore he instructs sinners in the way. He leads the humble in what is right, and teaches the humble his way.

Reading 1 Thessalonians 3.9-13

How can we thank God enough for you in return for all the joy that we feel before our God because of you? Night and day we pray most earnestly that we may see you face to face and restore whatever is lacking in your faith.

Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus direct our way to you. And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, just as we abound in love for you. And may he so strengthen your hearts in holiness that you may be blameless before our God and Father at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Gospel Luke 21.25-36

'There will be signs in the sun, the moon, and the stars, and on the earth distress among nations confused by the roaring of the sea and the waves. People will faint from fear and foreboding of what is coming upon the world, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see "the Son of Man coming in a cloud" with power and great glory.

Now when these things begin to take place, stand up and raise your heads, because your redemption is drawing near.'

Then he told them a parable: 'Look at the fig tree and all the trees; as soon as they sprout leaves you can see for yourselves and know that summer is already near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

'Be on guard so that your hearts are not weighed down with dissipation and drunkenness and the worries of this life, and that day does not catch you unexpectedly, like a trap. For it will come upon all who live on the face of the whole earth. Be alert at all times, praying that you may have the strength to escape all these things that will take place, and to stand before the Son of Man.'

Post Communion

O Lord our God, make us watchful and keep us faithful as we await the coming of your Son our Lord; that, when he shall appear, he may not find us sleeping in sin but active in his service and joyful in his praise; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
