'Each day is a new beginning, I know that the only way to live my life is to try to do what is right, to take the long view, to give of my best in all that the day brings, and to put my trust in God.' Her Majesty The Queen, on the occasion of her ninetieth birthday, recorded in the 2016 book, 'The Servant Queen and the King She Serves.' Today we celebrate the 70th anniversary of The Queen's accession and give thanks to God for her long reign and many, many years of service. Not forgetting that for her, 6 February is the day her father died, so today is also one of personal reflection.

The readings this morning point to a distinctive way of living; trusting God's will that all will be well. In Proverbs, Wisdom says: 'Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold; for wisdom is better than jewels' Then the image of heaven in Revelation: '...the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God... On either side of the river is the tree of life...and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.' And Jesus' image of the kingdom of heaven on earth: 'the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves... I am among you as one who serves.'

May God bless our Queen and give us all grace to live as one who trusts in God and one who serves.

Fr Michael

Collect

Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, bless our Sovereign Lady, Queen Elizabeth, and all who are in authority under her; that they may order all things in wisdom and equity, righteousness and peace, to the honour and glory of your name and the good of your Church and people; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading Proverbs 8.1-16

Does Not Wisdom
Call Out? Does Not Understanding Raise
Her Voice?

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: 'To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. O simple ones, learn prudence; acquire intelligence, you who lack it. Hear, for I will speak noble things, and from my lips will come what is right; for my mouth will utter truth; wickedness is an abomination to my lips. All the words of my mouth are righteous; there is nothing twisted or crooked in them. They are all straight to one who understands and right to those who find knowledge. Take my instruction instead of silver, and knowledge rather than choice gold; for wisdom is better than jewels, and all that you may desire cannot compare with her. I, wisdom, live with prudence, and I attain knowledge and discretion. The fear of the Lord is hatred of evil. Pride and arrogance and the way of evil and perverted speech I hate. I have good advice and sound wisdom; I have insight, I have strength. By me kings reign, and rulers decree what is just; by me rulers rule, and nobles, all who govern rightly.

Reading Revelation 21.22-22.4

I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God is its light, and its lamp is the Lamb. The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. Its gates will never be shut by day - and there will be no night there. People will bring into it the glory and the honour of the nations. But nothing unclean will enter it, nor anyone who practises abomination or falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month; and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Gospel Luke 22.24-30

A dispute also arose among them as to which one of them was to be regarded as the greatest. But he said to them, 'The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those in authority over them are called benefactors. But not so with you; rather the greatest among you must become like the youngest, and the leader like one who serves. For who is greater, the one who is at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one at the table?

But I am among you as one who serves.

'You are those who have stood by me in my trials; and I confer on you, just as my Father has conferred on me, a kingdom, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Post Communion

O God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace: give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions; take away our hatred and prejudice and whatever else may hinder us from godly union and concord, that, as there is but one body, one Spirit and one hope of our calling, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of us all, so may we henceforth be all of one heart and of one soul, united in one holy bond of truth and peace, of faith and charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorify you; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Verge on Church Road

I understand that the Worth Conservation Group no longer exists. The verge at the top of Street Hill at the beginning of Church Road was planted with native daffodils and bluebells. a couple of years ago. Sadly, the area has not been maintained and it is overgrown with brambles. I would dearly love to see the verge restored. Are there any green-fingered parishioners who could give me a helping hand over a couple of days (maybe not consecutive) to restore the verge to a maintainable and pretty site again? I look forward to hearing from you.
