At the beginning of Jesus' ministry, Jesus gave the Sermon on the Mount: instructions for living a Christian life. It was summed up by Jesus saying, "So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you". And here at the end of His ministry on earth, He sums it all up by saying, 'Love God with all your heart and your neighbour as yourself.'

Today's Gospel reading from Matthew comes at the end of a whole session of the Pharisees and Sadducees questioning Jesus (verses 15 ff.) They questioned by whose authority He was acting; they tried to trick Him with a question about taxes, and then the Sadducees - who didn't believe in the resurrection - thought that they would be clever with a question about a woman who married 7 brothers in succession. Finally, they test His orthodoxy when it came to Jewish Theology.

Which is the greatest commandment in the law? they asked. No-one could argue with His answer: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment," he told them. (This comes from Deut. 6.5. which helps us relate to God in our daily lives.) And the second is like it: Love your neighbour as yourself, which summarises the gist of Lev 19 especially ver.18. In other words, if you love God with all your heart and mind and soul and you love others as yourself, all the other laws come back to these two.

Which leads to the questions: Have you (or, for that matter I,) loved God with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength? Have you truly loved your neighbour as yourself? If not, you need to do something about it!

Collect

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: help us so to hear them, to read, mark, learn and inwardly digest them that, through patience, and the comfort of your holy word, we may embrace and for ever hold fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Reading Nehemiah 8.1-4a,8-12

All the people gathered together into the square before the Water Gate.

They told the scribe Ezra to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had given to Israel. Accordingly, the priest Ezra brought the law before the assembly, both men and women and all who could hear with understanding. This was on the first day of the seventh month. He read from it facing the square before the Water Gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women and those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book of the law. The scribe Ezra stood on a wooden platform that had been made for the purpose.

So they read from the book, from the law of God, with interpretation. They gave the sense, so that the people understood the reading.

And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest and scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, 'This day is holy to the Lord your God; do not mourn or weep.' For all the people wept when they heard the words of the law. Then he said to them, 'Go your way, eat the fat and drink sweet wine and send portions of them to those for whom nothing is prepared, for this day is holy to our Lord; and do not be grieved, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.' So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 'Be quiet, for this day is holy; do not be grieved.' And all the people went their way to eat and drink and to send portions and to make great rejoicing, because they had understood the words that were declared to them.

Reading Colossians 3.12-17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Gospel Matthew 24.30-35

Then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see "the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven" with power and great glory. And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see all these things, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

Post Communion

God of all grace, your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life and the word of his kingdom: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your true and living bread; who is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen

Church Cleaning at St Nicholas'

We are once again short of volunteers to join our Cleaning Team at St Nicholas'. If you could possibly assist, probably not more than 8 times per year for a couple of hours or so each time I should be delighted to hear from you and provide all the necessary information. All cleaning materials and tools are provided. The task is not onerous, but it would be such a great help to have 2 or 3 more people join the team. I look forward to hearing from you.
 Jill Freeborn

Thank You!

A huge thank you to everyone who made my Licensing such an amazing and memorable event, for everyone who worked so hard behind the scenes in organising and preparing, for everyone who was involved in the service and for everyone who came to support me. Thank you also for your contributions to refreshments and for my wonderful gift of a Home Communion set which I look forward to using in my ministry in the Parish.
