Our Gospel this week describes Christ's transfiguration as he, with Peter, James and John, were together on 'a high mountain'. In a sense it completes the events of the Epiphany: this is the revelation of Christ in full glory, wearing apparel that was dazzling white and in the company of two key figures of Jewish history, Moses and Elijah. Peter recognised that this was an event of the utmost significance and, in his impulsive way, wished it to be commemorated by the building of three memorial structures. This bears out exactly what was at the heart of the Epiphany story. Christ was seen in awesome dimensions so that his divine nature was powerfully apparent to Peter, James and John. Equally importantly Christ 'saw' them and awoke in them an overwhelming sense of the divine nature of his being. Furthermore, they heard God calling to them, confirming Christ's nature as 'his Son, the Beloved' and exhorting them to 'listen to him'. Seeing was being augmented by listening.

We do not have the capacity to see Christ but we can listen to him through silent prayer, through situations that overwhelm us with their timeless significance and through acts of love both given and received. We know from the words of St John's Gospel (chap. 17) that Christ promises God's love and protection to those who make sincere efforts to seek him out.

The search for Christ really is a central activity of our faith. We should try to cultivate a consciousness of Christ anywhere and everywhere, in both the good and the bad contexts in which life is lived. If we can sense Christ, we can sense God's true glory and the wonder of his heavenly promise to us.

Collect

Holy God, you know the disorder of our sinful lives: set straight our crooked hearts, and bend our wills to love your goodness and your glory in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

Reading 2 Kings 2.1-12

Now when the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven by a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. Elijah said to Elisha, 'Stay here; for the Lord has sent me as far as Bethel.' But Elisha said, 'As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So they went down to Bethel. The company of prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, 'Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?' And he said, 'Yes, I know; keep silent.'

Elijah said to him, 'Elisha, stay here; for the Lord has sent me to Jericho.' But he said, 'As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So they came to Jericho. The company of prophets who were at Jericho drew near to Elisha, and said to him, 'Do you know that today the Lord will take your master away from you?' And he answered, 'Yes, I know; be silent.'

Then Elijah said to him, 'Stay here; for the Lord has sent me to the Jordan.' But he said, 'As the Lord lives, and as you yourself live, I will not leave you.' So the two of them went on. Fifty men of the company of prophets also went, and stood at some distance from them, as they both were standing by the Jordan. Then Elijah took his mantle and rolled it up, and struck the water; the water was parted to the one side and to the other, until the two of them crossed on dry ground. When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, 'Tell me what I may do for you, before I am taken from you.' Elisha said, 'Please let me inherit a double share of your spirit.' He responded, 'You have asked a hard thing; yet, if you see me as I am being taken from you, it will be granted you; if not, it will not.' As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah ascended in a whirlwind into heaven. Elisha kept watching and crying out, 'Father, father!'

The chariots of Israel and its horsemen!' But when he could no longer see him, he grasped his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

Reading 2 Corinthians 4.3-6

And even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing.

In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God. For we do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, 'Let light shine out of darkness', who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

Gospel Mark 9.2-9

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and led them up a high mountain apart, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his clothes became dazzling white, such as no one on earth could bleach them. And there appeared to them Elijah with Moses, who were talking with Jesus. Then Peter said to Jesus, 'Rabbi, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.' He did not know what to say, for they were terrified. Then a cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud there came a voice, 'This is my Son, the Beloved; listen to him!' Suddenly when they looked around, they saw no one with them any more, but only Jesus.

As they were coming down the mountain, he ordered them to tell no one about what they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Post Communion

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Volunteering

To support the smooth running of the Parish, we are looking to recruit people who can spare as little as an hour or so. We have opportunities to support the administration and maintenance at St Barnabas' to support David. We are looking for a PCC Secretary and there are also opportunities in the growing Children's and Youth Ministry subject to Safer Recruitment checks. Full training and support will be given.

Please get in touch with Fr Michael, Sarah or David.

St Nicholas' Spring Clean

Please come and help with our Annual Spring Clean on Sat 23 Mar 10:30-12:30.

The more volunteers we have, ladies and gentlemen, the shorter time it will take.

All tools and cleaning equipment provided together with 2 hours of good company, a good supply of laughs and the satisfaction that our beautiful church will look its best not only for Easter, but for some time to come. If you cannot spare 2 hours then any lesser period would still be greatly appreciated.

If you have any queries please contact me – Jill Freeborn 01293 883631 – but it would also be appreciated if you could let me know that you will be coming.
