We are now journeying through Advent, which is the season of expectation, as we prepare to celebrate the coming of Christ.
During Advent, we remember that Jesus is the Light of the World, who brought light into the darkness.

Candles take on a special significance as the days grow darker. A lighted candle reminds us that Jesus is the Light of the World. On each Sunday of Advent during our church service, we light a candle on the Advent Wreath. You will notice that there are three purple candles and one pink one. In the centre is a white candle that is lit on Christmas Day. Although Advent is a time for reflection in darkness, it is also a time for renewal of hope.
Today being the Third Sunday of Advent, we will light the pink candle which symbolises JOY.

As we continue to approach Christmas Day, our joy grows more and more. It takes us back to the joyful anticipation of the shepherds as they journeyed from the hillsides to the stable in Bethlehem to find the Christ-child.

The Church calls the third Sunday of Advent 'Gaudete Sunday'. Gaudete means rejoice or praise, so we rejoice like the shepherds. The colour of the Gaudete candle is pink because that is the liturgical colour for joy. It is sometimes called the Rose candle.

On Gaudete Sunday, as we come to worship, let us be joyful and rejoice in the Lord.

'Rejoice in the Lord always.
I will say it again. Rejoice.'

Philippians 4:4

Canon Penny

Collect

God for whom we watch and wait, you sent John the Baptist to prepare the way of your Son: give us courage to speak the truth, to hunger for justice, and to suffer for the cause of right, with Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Reading Zephaniah 3.14-20

Sing aloud, O daughter Zion; shout, O Israel! Rejoice and exult with all your heart, O daughter Jerusalem! The Lord has taken away the judgements against you, he has turned away your enemies. The king of Israel, the Lord, is in your midst; you shall fear disaster no more. On that day it shall be said to Jerusalem: Do not fear, O Zion; do not let your hands grow weak. The Lord, your God, is in your midst, a warrior who gives victory;

he will rejoice over you with gladness, he will renew you in his love; he will exult over you with loud singing as on a day of festival. I will remove disaster from you, so that you will not bear reproach for it. I will deal with all your oppressors at that time. And I will save the lame and gather the outcast, and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. At that time I will bring you home, at the time when I gather you; for I will make you renowned and praised among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the Lord.

Reading Philippians 4.4-7

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all is understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Luke 3.7-18

John said to the crowds that came out to be baptized by him, 'You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bear fruits worthy of repentance. Do not begin to say to yourselves, "We have Abraham as our ancestor"; for I tell you, God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham. Even now the axe is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.'

And the crowds asked him, 'What then should we do?' In reply he said to them, 'Whoever has two coats must share with anyone who has none; and whoever has food must do likewise.' Even tax-collectors came to be baptized, and they asked him, 'Teacher, what should we do?' He said to them, 'Collect no more than the amount prescribed for you.' Soldiers also asked him, 'And we, what should we do?' He said to them, 'Do not extort money from anyone by threats or false accusation, and be satisfied with your wages.'

As the people were filled with expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Messiah, John answered all of them by saying, 'I baptize you with water; but one who is more powerful than I is coming; I am not worthy to untie the thong of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fork is in his hand, to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with unquenchable fire.'

So, with many other exhortations, he proclaimed the good news to the people.

Post Communion

We give you thanks, O Lord, for these heavenly gifts; kindle in us the fire of your Spirit that when your Christ comes again we may shine as lights before his face; who is alive and reigns now and for ever. Amen
