The Parable of the Good Samaritan is one of the most well-known parables of Jesus.
The central message of this parable is that we should show compassion to everyone, including those that we might think are different from us.

Part of the appeal of this parable is that it is easily understood and remembered by young and old alike. It is also a story that can be put into a modern-day context.

Jesus spoke in parables because he knew that his listeners would remember both the story and its meaning. It certainly was an effective teaching method because here we are two thousand years later and the story is very familiar to us. Even those outside of Christianity will know the phrase 'The Good Samaritan'.

Most people have also heard of the registered charity known as Samaritans. It is a charity aimed at providing emotional support to anyone in distress. The name of the charity derives from the Parable of the Good Samaritan and was founded in 1953 by the Reverend Chad Varah, a Church of England vicar. His inspiration for founding the charity came from when he had been a curate in Lincolnshire. He had taken the funeral of a fourteen-year-old girl who had committed suicide. Reverend Chad Varah felt sorry that the girl had become so distressed that she saw her only answer was suicide. If only she could have talked to someone, perhaps her life could have been saved.

Jesus ended his teaching by saying 'Go and do likewise.' That instruction is for us too.
Or as it says in 1 Corinthians 16:14

'Let all that you do be done in love.'

Canon Penny

Collect

Gracious Father, by the obedience of Jesus you brought salvation to our wayward world: draw us into harmony with your will, that we may find all things restored in him, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Reading Deuteronomy 30.9-14

And the Lord your God will make you abundantly prosperous in all your undertakings, in the fruit of your body, in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your soil. For the Lord will again take delight in prospering you, just as he delighted in prospering your ancestors, when you obey the Lord your God by observing his commandments and decrees that are written in this book of the law, because you turn to the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul. Surely, this commandment that I am commanding you today is not too hard for you, nor is it too far away. It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will go up to heaven for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will cross to the other side of the sea for us, and get it for us so that we may hear it and observe it?' No, the word is very near to you; it is in your mouth and in your heart for you to observe.

Reading Colossians 1.1-14

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, To the saints and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ in Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. You have heard of this hope before in the word of the truth, the gospel that has come to you. Just as it is bearing fruit and growing in the whole world, so it has been bearing fruit among yourselves from the day you heard it and truly comprehended the grace of God. This you learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow-servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, and he has made known to us your love in the Spirit. For this reason, since the day we heard it, we have not ceased praying for you and asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of God's will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that you may lead lives worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, as you bear fruit in every good work and as you grow in the knowledge of God. May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

FOR HE HAS RESCUED US FROM THE DOMINION OF DARKNESS AND BROUGHT US INTO THE KINGDOM OF THE SON HE LOVES,

Gospel Luke 10.25-37

Just then a lawyer stood up to test Jesus. 'Teacher,' he said, 'what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the law? What do you read there?' He answered, 'You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbour as yourself.' And he said to him, 'You have given the right answer; do this, and you will live.'

But wanting to justify himself, he asked Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell into the hands of robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went away, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan while travelling came near him; and when he saw him, he was moved with pity. He went to him and bandaged his wounds, having poured oil and wine on them.

Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn, and took care of him. The next day he took out two denarii, gave them to the innkeeper, and said, "Take care of him; and when I come back, I will repay you whatever more you spend." Which of these three, do you think, was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?' He said, 'The one who showed him mercy.' Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'

Post Communion

Eternal God, comfort of the afflicted and healer of the broken, you have fed us at the table of life and hope: teach us the ways of gentleness and peace, that all the world may acknowledge the kingdom of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Entwined in Harmony, Eleven centuries of music and flowers at St Nicholas', Worth: August 23 - 25 2025

As we are preparing for the wonderful music and flower festival celebrating the 1,050th anniversary of St Nicholas' and raising funds across the weekend for The Organ Restoration Fund and St Catherine's Hospice, do you know anyone who would like to sponsor an arrangement as an individual, as part of a group or from a local business or company? We will include names of supporters in the festival brochure (if you would like). It would be a wonderful way to celebrate or commemorate someone or something very special. Do get in touch if you would like to discuss the options further. Adela Hawley 07947424860 adelahawley@gmail.com or Mark Harrison musicdirector@worthparish.org

Festival Choir rehearsals - every Sunday, at 16:00, at St. Nicholas', lasting just over an hour. All welcome, as we start getting ready for the Festival at the end of August. No fee, no audition, no need to bring your own music - just turn up and sing. Rehearsals will be every Sunday until the day of the concert.

Recycling

We continue to recycle milk bottle tops. Containers are now available in the Narthex and on Sue's doorstep. Please deliver by the end of JULY. We also collect used postage stamps (for the Hospice) and used printer cartridges (for McIndoe); please deliver to the Narthex. Our recent collection of printer cartridges raised £14.45 for McIndoe. Thank you!
